Post-deployment monitoring protocol (C3)

A verification holds only while nothing changes. Five triggers take a verified link back to declared, and every reversal is closed by one reassessment.

Every change goes through a single write path, which keeps the audit trail complete and makes it possible to reconstruct why each link is in the state it is in.